Post Title:	Freelance Digital Creative Media Teacher / Practitioners
Reporting to:	Production Arts: Theatre, Film and Media Course Pathway Leader
Location:	CAPA College, Wakefield
Start Date:	September 2018
Hours:	1.5 days (term time only)
Salary:	To be agreed dependent upon experience and qualifications.

CAPA College are seeking to appoint an experienced and professional freelance Digital Creative Media teacher/practitioner. We are seeking candidates with good practical knowledge, experience and skills in film production: from pre-production planning, to running single camera and multi camera shoots and post production and editing techniques. A good knowledge of other areas of the digital creative media such as photography, print based media and sound would also be advantageous. Successful candidates will work predominantly with students and staff on the Production Arts: Theatre, Film and Media course pathway but will also work closely with other pathways in order to produce a wide range of high quality digital media products.

Successful candidates will be:

- A specialist in Digital Creative Media (film production)
- Able to inspire, motivate, challenge and support students to achieve and excel
- A good, creative and engaging media teacher / practitioner
- Committed to working as part of a team
- Committed and imaginative in the planning and delivery of lessons/projects
- Talented, creative media practitioner with an understanding and appreciation of all art forms
- Positive, enthusiastic and enjoy working in a fast-paced, busy Arts environment with young people aged 16-19

CAPA College:

CAPA College provides full-time specialist Arts training and education for students aged 16-19. 2018 marks an exciting new chapter in the history and development of CAPA College as we open as a new DfE funded Free School within Enhance Academy Trust.

Building on the outstanding legacy that CAPA College has achieved over the past 12-years, and still under the direction of the same successful core leadership team, CAPA College will now be able to develop and expand allowing even more talented and creative young people to gain access to the highest quality of Arts training and education. CAPA College will offer more student places, more exciting opportunities, new course pathways, increased staffing and resources and a brand-new and purpose-built home with the latest specialist arts and media facilities. CAPA College will be renting temporary accommodation from September 2018 whilst its permanent new bespoke home at Mulberry Way, Wakefield, is under construction (due for completion Summer 2020).

CAPA College has a regional and national reputation for excellence in the Arts with consistently 'Outstanding' judgements from Ofsted, excellent exam results, exceptional student progression routes and critically acclaimed, award-winning performances.

CAPA College are located within the centre of Wakefield, providing places for students in this area and from across the Yorkshire region. We are already at full capacity of 105 students for September 2018 with a further 105 students expected to enrol next year. Capacity will increase to 500 students when the new building opens in 2020.

How to apply:

If you are excited by this opportunity at CAPA College then we would love to hear from you.
